Our Story

Bryan and Hope met in the summer of 2005. Bryan was playing soccer with Hope's best friend. Bryan's ability to make Hope laugh and make her feel comfortable was one of the main attractions for her. Bryan was attracted to Hope's beauty and her down-to-earth, outgoing personality. One day, Hope planned a dinner and told Bryan everyone was coming; but, in reality, only Bryan was invited. We can appear to be complete opposites but together we balance each other out. Bryan is calm and collected under pressure and Hope is organized and well planned for anything life throws our way.

What Brought Us to Adoption

After six years of trying to conceive, we started to have the conversation about possibly living a life without children. However, we felt the overwhelming desire to be parents was something God had put in our hearts and couldn't be ignored. That strong desire is one of the main reasons we've been moved to adopt. We know we will be great parents and we know that we could offer a child a happy home with love, support and encouragement. This road has been bumpy but as a couple we have grown so much and we make an amazing team!

Our Hopes, Open Adoption & Relationship with Birth Family

We are looking to grow our family through this adoption process. We have so much space in our hearts and we are more than ready to be parents and begin our life as a family. We believe open adoption is a great opportunity for everyone involved. It allows the child to have a connection to their biological relatives. It allows the birth family to have a sense of security knowing that their child is loved and cared for and it allows us the opportunity to be parents and share their love.

These individuals have met all requirements of the State of Michigan and Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County to become adoptive parents, may fit your situation and are waiting to welcome a child into their home. If you would like more information about this family, please contact:
