Our Story

We met through a blind date arranged by Justin's cousin in 2011. Justin's cousin wanted to introduce us for years but the timing was never quite right. When we finally did meet, our hearts both fluttered and we quickly fell in love. Justin fell in love with Angie's thoughtfulness and kind heart and Angie fell in love with Justin's compassion and sincerity. It did not take long to realize how much we have in common and how perfectly our values matched up. We dated for about three years and were married in 2014 in front of our family and friends.

What Brought Us to Adoption

We started trying for a family as soon as we were married but discovered a couple of years later that route wasn't meant to be. We believe one door may have closed but another opened and open adoption is the path God intended for us to take.

Our Hopes, Open Adoption & Relationship with Birth Family

We look forward to building a life as a family through open adoption and want to ensure that you are comfortable throughout this process. We are open to sending pictures and letters to reassure you that your child is in a loving home. Our child will know their family history from an early age and their adoption will be celebrated. We have so much love to give and are eager to celebrate every milestone in our child's life. Our child is a precious gift and will be loved with all our hearts and be the greatest blessing in our lives.
