Our Story

We met in nursing school during our classes and clinical, due to our personalities we were urged by friends to go out. We had a natural connection, since then we have built our love off of our affinity for laughter, social gatherings and travel. We have been together for 13 years now, were married in August 2012, and have worked on making our house home since. We have worked on furthering our education and careers in order to start building our family. We live in SE Michigan picking our home in our lovely neighborhood due to great schools and areas for children.

What Brought Us to Adoption

We have always wanted to have a family to grow with and have always considered adoption as a wonderful way to grow our family. We have been working to grow family for several years with natural means and fertility means. After much thought and prayer, we have become more and more excited that adoption is the best journey for our family! We have had long discussions with our friends and our family and are excited to have so much support.

Our Hopes, Open Adoption & Relationship with Birth Family

We are truly excited about open adoption, and overall we would always want what would be best for any child. We will always be respectful, open and honest with the birth family and their comfort level with openness. We understand it will be a growing process for all involved and look forward to the possibility of growing with you! We look forward to meeting with you and are willing to answer any and all questions!
