While we don't identify with one religion, we believe there are good lessons taken from all religions. We live our life by the Golden Rule: treating everyone with love, respect and acceptance without judgement.

Pets

We have 2 dogs, Bentley and Harley, and one cat, Eevee.

Children in Home

If you don't count Bill, there are no children in our home currently.

Our Story

Hi, we're Bill and Lindsay! We first met at Red Robin, not on a date, but working as servers almost 10 years ago! We started dating once Bill was able to convince Lindsay's dog that he was a good guy. Just like dating, our other big milestones have been punctuated by our pets. Our cat Eevee found us when we moved in together, and we adopted our second dog after purchasing our first home in 2016. We are very excited to welcome our next edition, a child, into our loving home!

What Brought Us to Adoption

While we're odd in many ways, we came to adoption like so many others. As we mentioned in our hobbies, we're big DIYers, it just turns out not when it comes to making babies. Our struggles with infertility didn't change our dream of having a human child, they just changed the "how."

Our Hopes, Open Adoption & Relationship with Birth Family

Through adoption, we want to grow our family, hopefully including the birth family. As we've researched open adoption, we've grown to embrace the idea and look forward to forming a relationship with our child's birth family. We want our children to know where and who they come from. Their health and happiness will always be our number one priority and we understand a good relationship with their birth family can be a part of that, but we'd never force a relationship that isn't healthy or desired by everyone. Our families have embraced our adoption journey whole-heartedly. We know they will embrace our children's birth families with the same open arms.

These individuals have met all requirements of the State of Michigan and Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County to become adoptive parents, may fit your situation and are waiting to welcome a child into their home.
