Our Story

We grew up in the same small town, but it wasn't until college that we started hanging out with mutual friends. We got to talking about music, art, film, and Kristen's recent travels and realized we had a lot in common. We were dating by the end of that week, and have been together ever since. Over the years, we've strengthened our relationship by being best friends and true partners, and in the summer of 2012 we got married.

What Brought Us to Adoption

We included adoption in our conversations about growing our family from the very beginning. After meeting with a fertility specialist and finding out that we would not be able to conceive without fertility treatments, we knew that was not the right path for us. We were confident that adoption was our next step. We wholeheartedly feel like this is where we are meant to be.

Our Hopes, Open Adoption & Relationship with Birth Family

We are committed to building a relationship that is comfortable for everyone. With a foundation of mutual trust and respect, we are open to working towards integrating birth parents or other birth family members into our lives as part of our child's extended family. At the same time, we will be respectful of the need for distance if that is what you would prefer. We are flexible and willing to evolve through this process together and throughout this child's life to build a healthy, loving, and supportive relationship with you, whatever that may look like.

These individuals have met all requirements of the State of Michigan and Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County to become adoptive parents, may fit your situation and are waiting to welcome a child into their home.
